

ROCKY & Friends!

This Activity Book belongs to:

Velvet

the Connemara pony

Velvet was pregnant when she came to the Ontario SPCA and Humane Society when her previous family could no longer provide the care she needed. After a few months in a foster stable, Velvet found her forever family and gave birth to her black filly, Chantilly Lace, in the loving care of her new home! Velvet now works as a member of an equine assisted therapy team.

Bear

the Tabby cat

At three weeks old, Bear was found alone in a homeowner's garage. With no mother or other kitten siblings in sight, they brought him to the Ontario SPCA Muskoka Animal Centre.

Shortly after arriving at the animal centre, Bear was taken in by a foster family that eventually became his forever home!

Bear now helps other cats and kittens fostered by his pet parent, Kirstin. He has taken on the role of "Foster Father" and helps rehabilitate some of the more frightened felines.

Judy

the Shepherd/Labrador mix

At just three weeks old, Judy and her family were part of a very special journey. The Ontario SPCA and Humane Society was invited by a remote Northern community to assist in transporting dogs to find new homes. At the Ontario SPCA, Judy and her six siblings were put in the loving care of a temporary foster home until old enough to be adopted. Judy and her brothers and sisters were all adopted and are very happy in their new forever homes.
